A friendly request and reminder from your First Mate,

Soon we will commence compiling a list of active members for our printed Crew list, which all active members will receive. We want to ensure that everyone's information is accurate and that you all receive your copy of the crew List.

Kindly log in at <https://ftlmc.memberclicks.net/login?servId=5103> and review your membership information. Please update the information to reflect complete and current employment and contact information (please insure your contact information includes company name & suite number).

If you have not renewed your membership, please take the time to do so now so that you may enjoy the benefits.

February Club Luncheon

Thank you to all who attended our February Club Luncheon with Special Guest John Kretchmer.

About John

John Kretschmer has been in the breezes, as Joshua Slocum put it, most of his life. A professional sailor and writer, he is an accomplished ocean voyager, having logged more than 300,000 offshore miles. He led a long ago record breaking voyage from New York to San Francisco by way of Cape Horn. He has made 26 transatlantic crossings, and numerous long passages in all the world's oceans.

He has written 7 books and hundreds of articles. His book Sailing a Serious Ocean was an international sailing best seller, and At the Mercy of Sea was chosen as one the best nonfiction books of 2007 (US). Flirting With Mermaids is an enduring favorite among sailors and has just been republished as a Lyons Press, "Maritime Classic." He has been a contributing editor to Sailing Magazine for 25 years.

John's latest book, Sailing to the Edge of Time, was just released by Bloomsbury. "This is the book I have been writing my entire life," he writes, adding, "sometimes it seems like it took that long to finish it." It's a memoir that mixes sea stories and sailing insights. It's a deeply personal account of what it means to go to sea, to be at sea and features hard-won lessons about making the most of our lives. The premise is simple, it's all about time, how we spend our time defines our life. Time spent sailing, especially deep ocean sailing, is time well spent. At sea we find out who we really are, and what we are capable of, far from the shackles of land we find an elusive place where time changes shape - days may merge into one another, but minutes are memorable.

John's latest book was available for purchase at our luncheon. To read more about it, visit: <https://tinyurl.com/y79fhvvi>

About Us

The Fort Lauderdale Mariners Club is dedicated to the promotion of ethical business practices among the sea-going community as well as the circulation of accurate and useful information to the boating community.

Our membership includes both professional and leisure boating enthusiasts, as well as industry experts and professionals in many disciplines from around the world.

Join Us

We welcome your interest in the Mariners Club and invite you to become an active member to the benefit of each of us individually and all of us as a community. The easiest way to join is to attend a monthly meeting as a guest of a current member.

Request an application form from an officer, complete it and mail it with your check for $50.00 to the Mariners Club for consideration by the membership committee.

Two sponsors are required. If you want to join and do not know an active member, contact Hector Ramirez at ramirez@nklegal.com.
